To the Clergy, Religious, and Lay Faithful of the Diocese of Lincoln:

A Joyous Christmas to you! I wish you well this Christmas, as you gather together with your families, your friends and your parish, to celebrate the birth of Our Savior, Jesus Christ.

During this challenging year, the Lord has invited us to deeper faith, trust, confidence, and hope. He is the only one that can make sense of our struggles. Christmas reminds us that he became little and humble for us, so that we might come to know him as our merciful Savior, who shared our earthly existence.

One great sign of hope this year is our celebration of the witness of St. Joseph. As Pope Francis said in Patris Corde, "Each of us can discover in Joseph – the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence – an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble. Saint Joseph reminds us that those who appear hidden or in the shadows can play an incomparable role in the history of salvation." Your own Christian witness to the importance of prayer, the beauty and dignity of human life, and fidelity to your vocation are great gifts to God, your brothers and sisters in Christ, and to the world. God's grace is evident in your willingness to share in the work of Redemption.

I entrust you and your loved ones to the care and intercession of St. Joseph as we celebrate the birth of Jesus. Please be assured of my prayers for you and your families, especially in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,
✠James D. Conley
Bishop of Lincoln
